

LIFE STREAMS

All of you are incredible souls who are on the path to mastery and oneness. You voluntarily came here to shift the energy of the planet and yourself as part of your collective contract.

You have taken innumerable births in the earth plane working to balance and release the dense energies and to heal the separation consciousness by releasing many of the erroneous belief system you have of yourself.

Your birth is planned by you. Every aspect of your life is chosen by you - your gender, your race and culture, your parents, your name, your challenges and the solutions - every aspect of yourself.

You choose this in conjunction with Higher Self and with the Higher Self of all the people with whom you have contracts. This aspect of choosing is called Sacred Contracts. This is a contract you have made with yourself for your growth. To fulfill the contracts, you have requested the assistance of the astrological planets and hence they have a great influence in your life.

You also requested the assistance of numerological frequencies along with some of the nature kingdoms.

You also chose to deliberately forget about your sacred contract. Hence all the experiences of your life are an attempt to remember and reclaim that forgotten part of you.

You have also placed markers in your life journey as a guidepost which can support you to remember who you are.

One of the supporting energies which can help you in the process of remembrance is the SEA WAVES.

Sea waves are encoded with certain frequencies called Omega Point. This is a frequency which helps one to join and align with your Soul, your planetary self/galactic self and your Spirit Self.

Sea waves also contain certain colour frequencies and these colors feed your soul self. There are also benevolent life forms you call Bacteria in the sea waves which are designed to reduce the densities in the skin.

The life you experience on a daily basis is dependent on the awareness you hold underneath your skin.

The higher the dense energies you carry,
it will be the strongest energy
underneath your skin.

Sea waves also carry the energy and intent for the evolution of humanity and for Earth, which is the energy of Ascension.

EXERCISE

Connect with the sea waves. The Sea is a living Spirit. Join with it in your quiet time. Simply bringing awareness to the sea and its waves is enough to start the process of remembering your true selves.
Certain sounds and hand gestures also can support you in this process.

Sounds to connect with the sea waves is IRRAA SHAA HEMM

Hand Gesture - touch the area of your belly button with your opened left palm.

Index finger and thumb of your right hand is opened, while all other fingers are closed. Be in this position for ten minutes. Continue this exercise for forty days. You would have made a deep connection to the sea waves and the living spirit of the ocean.

The nature kingdom is your best ally in re-discovering and re-remembering with yourself.
