

Many are called to be light bearers in these times and it is a great responsibility one carries for it can harm or damage others through your expression of what you think the truth is for the benefit of them. Be aware of it.

This invitation to awaken others is not to set you up as a Leader, but to simply and humbly share your truths and the progress you have made through your challenges and struggles and how through your imperfections and short comings, you have found some sense of peace and joy in your heart and you present this simply as a humble offering from your divinity. Also remember that, your discovered truth about yourself is your truth and is not the Universal Truth or the absolute truth.

There is no absolute truth.

Let your truth make a way for others to find their own truth.

In this humbleness there is no place of self aggrandize as you grow more in awareness, one becomes more and more humble.

Humbleness along with Simplicity is the hallmark of Greatness
