“The journey to the Holy Land must be undertaken with love and humility in one's heart, for this land can offer you much. It is the birth place of many master teachings, for this is a sacred portal and if one is prepared with a pure heart, one can have great moments of transcendence for all the places I had walked. I had anchored my energy there. These energies are waiting for you. The ancient ones who lived here, knew about the significance of this land and they travelled far and wide to come here, for it is written that when one walks on the land of Jerusalem, all the blessings of the Creator can be with them. I invite you to come to this holy place through the holiness of your heart.

*I await you.
