

Nature

Nature is the expression of the Divine. Each piece of nature has a role to play in the evolution of the planet. Nature holds the evolutionary codes for the planet earth. Unlike humans, nature does not have life lessons or karmic energy to balance.

Nature supports humanity. If there were no nature and animal spirits, human beings would have great difficulty existing on the planet. Nature along with animal kingdom are our support system.

Nature offers much to humanity. Not only the energy of Love they transmit, they transmit the energy of Hope. When you are agitated, spending some time in nature will bring in a calming effect. It acts as a tranquilizer to balance the emotions.

Nature kingdoms holds the energy of magic. They hold the energy from our Solar System.

Nature Kingdoms are the providers of guidance and wisdom to the flying ones and also to the crawling ones and all the four legged creatures.

There are nature spirits you can call on for support and guidance. The wise elders who guide the evolution of the nature kingdoms are some of the giant trees. Sequoia is one of them.

Redwood is another one.

The trees remember the evolution of the earth and is marked on their bark.

By communing with nature and the trees, you will be able to gain valuable insights into humanity's evolution. The giant trees all over the planet emit a light frequency. Many times, it is a mix of soft purple and gold colour. It is the frequency of Love and Support which they are beaming into the world.

One of the biggest gifts which humanity possesses is the ability to share or connect consciousness across vast distances of time and space, through thought projection.

Your consciousness goes wherever your thoughts go. But beyond thought, the essence of you - which is Love can be shared throughout the Universe, for this essence, transcends time and space.

You are all familiar with the story of my journey into Oneness, sitting under a tree. Did the spirit of the tree, I am sitting under, enlighten me on some way? I leave this to all of you to ponder.

I will reveal a hidden mystery to all of you. My enlightenment energy which helped me to shed all layers of my illusion, can still be accessed by connecting to the Tree. Trees communicate with their own kind and also others just like human beings. In the manner, your enlightenment will affect all people around you, the tree under which I sat, shared my enlightenment energy to all other similar trees.

What does it mean to you?

EXERCISE:

You can in your own time, connect to a similar tree and partake the energy of My Enlightenment. Since there is no past, present or future and only the moment of Now, this energy is held as a Now moment in the Akash of the tree and Mother Earth.

I invite you all to undertake this journey and move into the Now moment of you. Trees also have mandalas and their auras are mainly in gold colour. People with inner vision will be able to perceive this mandala and the aura.

You can sit in the comfort of your home and in quiet moments, you can give intent to connect with the benevolent tree spirit. Imagine or visualize a beam of light going from your third eye, into the tree you wish to connect.

Do this for a few minutes. You will start to feel or sense energy coming back to you and you will feel it in your third eye area.
