

The magician waved his hand
And out came sparkles of light
It danced in my hands and into my heart
Magically carrying me into the heavens where the Gods dance and weave the magic of creation
What do I behold? Creation in process
Of a new world filled with love, joy and peace
I danced to the holy symphony which was being played
The Holy Angels and the choir sang
Let us behold this new world, for we can dream it into being
In this I became part of the Creative process
And my heart burst forth with love and wonder inside of me
My body sang my Soul Song
Thus, I created my signature to be imprinted in this Grand Universe
And GOD jumped and danced along with me and whispered in my ear
WE ARE ONE AND ALWAYS WAS AND ALWAYS WILL BE.
Then I realized that I am the Universe, The Earth and Heaven and all in between.

I am I am I am
