

I am the Light

I am the Darkness

I am the Light in Between

I am This and That and All That Be for

I Am the Creation and Dissolution and the Resurrection

I am the Wing in the flying of the Golden Eagle

The mighty Roar of the great Lion

The magic of Colours on the wings of the Butterfly

The sweet fragrance in the flowers

In the magical designs in the leaves of the gigantic Trees

The awesome beauty of the Night Sky with its Twinkling Stars

In the splattering of the rain drops

In the croaking of the Frogs in the ponds and lakes

In the Singing of the Birds

In the rich aroma of the foods you consume

In the Music you hear daily

In the clothes you wear

*And in all that you are
For you are Me and I am You
For we are inseparable for..... We are the Circle of Oneness
In this Oneness you and me dance in Union for we are Home
In the Sweet Remembrance of Our God presence with in*
