

*Like the stars which explode in the sky
Love in its infinite form
Dances through and marches
Through the corridors of time
Weaving a magnificent tapestry
Of brilliant Colours and magic
And in this one sees one ' perfection
And beauty in all its majesty
And one wonders the secrets of Creation
And in this self-discovery
My heart sings and weeps in
Joyous harmony
For I have discovered the secrets
Of Creation itself and
This Creation was Me.*

*I am Creation
I am Perfection
I am Beauty and Joy
I am That I Am*
