

Oneness

*In the timelessness of the ever-present moment I woke
From my slumber and I gazed at the approaching night sky
And I sighed a little and asked Who Am I in this moment of time
My body shook a little and it answered through my Feeling,
You are the night sky
In the stillness of the night Sky, you will see yourself as the Grand one
The bright shining Star and my mind asked,
Am I this Magnificent One?
My Body answered.....Stand Still and you Will feel it,
For in the feeling is The Gentle words and whispers
Of your Beloved Soul communing with You
I gently closed my eyes and became still
And then I Heard the most melodious voice
It was my Soul which whispered through my heart
You and Me have danced the life of Eternity through all realms and Existences
Through all the ups and downs
And the Universe was and is our playing Ground
For We are the Creators and we are the First Cause in our Creation
And the Last Cause in Our Experience and in this eternal Creation of ours,
We join with ALL THAT IS, and the CIRCLE is Complete
And this I understood, and I looked up at the night sky
And I saw myself there beaming a Glorious Ray of Light unto
All Creation and my heart exploded In Joy and Gratitude
For I was Experiencing myself in its Godliness and I felt complete*

*In Harmony with All For I am All, All is Me, Me is Eternal,
For it is my Truth, For I am Love, I am Beauty and Grace
And I am Joy and Peace, And I Am That I Am.*
